People Management in Practice

Second edition

Neil Thompson

This new edition combines theories and practical insights to provide guidance and tools needed to navigate the complexities of today's modern workplace. With a wealth of experience across the management and leadership fields, Neil Thompson addresses highly relevant and important contemporary topics for organizations across the world: mental health and wellbeing, diversity and inclusion, health and safety and workload management. Alongside other books in the Practice Manuals for Busy Professionals series, this book offers support to anyone whose work requires them to manage and lead others, whether in the human services or beyond.
